

Third grade GT students hosted an Electricity Day for the 2nd and 3rd graders at Davenport Elementary School. GT students taught about the various forms of electricity and then ran interactive electrical activities that demonstrated static or circuit electricity, or electrical conductivity. The students had fun while learning about electricity and how to use it!

